

LIFE TO THE FULL

Day Three: Remember and Recognise

Today, we're looking at points five and six from the workbook.

As I mention in the workbook, although the women were told by Jesus Himself that He would be returning, they didn't quite believe Him and found themselves at the tomb. Verses 8-9 of Luke 24 indicate that once the women's memories were jogged, they took ACTION! They went and told the others what had happened.

Think back, lovely. Have you had promises or even prophecy spoken over your life which has been a long time coming? Are there things you've once passionately trusted God for and believed He would do in and through you, which have since left you thinking you might have made it up?

Jeremiah 1:12 tells us that God is watching over His word to perform it. He's watching over the promises He has for YOUR life too. Don't doubt it, lovely.

- ♥ List in the box below the promises, plans and prophecies which have been spoken over your life (as many as you can remember). Have you lost faith and hope in some of them coming to pass? Pray that God will restore that hope back to you!

LIFE TO THE FULL

With God, a 'no' can sometimes be a 'not yet' as opposed to a 'never'!

We don't always understand why, however, just like Jesus did with the disciples in Luke 24:16 (point 6 in the workbook), sometimes our eyes can be kept from seeing something for a reason until a specific time.

You've just written down areas of your life, which, for one reason or another, you've lost a little faith in actually seeing fulfilled because of how long they've taken to come to pass.

Remember, if God is keeping you from seeing something in the present, it's often because there's a lesson to be learned in the gap!

- ♥ Using the space below, list some of the things God has shown you and the lessons you have learned as a result of this season of waiting which you might not have learned otherwise. Then thank and praise God for what you've learned in the past (and present) even if you are still seeking what He will do in the future!
